The Management Board of Medinice S.A. _the "Issuer"_ announces that it has received notification of the grant by the Israeli Patent Office of a patent for the invention entitled "Cryoapplicator for Minimally Invasive Cardiac Surgery Ablation with a Functional Tip", which forms part of the project operating under the name CoolCryo. As part of the CoolCryo project, patent protection also covers solutions protected in the USA, Canada, Europe, Japan, South Korea, China and India.

The acquisition of patent protection in Israel for the above-mentioned invention constitutes a further step in implementing the Issuer's intellectual property protection and patent policy strategy.
